

LATEST NEWS OF SPORT IN ITS VARIOUS BRANCHES.

GANS AND TURNER FIGHT TO-NIGHT AT 'FRISCO.

Lightweight Championship Depends on Result—Baltimorean 2 to 1 Favorite.

Joe Gans and Rufe Turner, also colored and the champion lightweight of Stockton, Cal., will engage in a twenty-round bout before the Century A. C. of Los Angeles, Cal., to-night for the lightweight championship title. They are to fight at 135 pounds, weigh in at the ring

YOUNG CORBETT HERE TO TRAIN.

Denver Boy Is Fit Even Now, and Is Confident of Again Whipping Terry McGovern When They Meet.

Fighting enthusiasts in this city have something more to talk about to-day than the big fight between Fitz and Jeffries to-morrow night. The presence of "Young Corbett" on upper Broadway has caused the topic of conversation to change to the little fellow's fight with Terry McGovern at New London on Aug. 2.

The Denver boy, looking fit as the proverbial fiddle, got in town this morning. He is not going to stay here long, though, for he has some work to do to prepare for his bout.

Just where he will train is a matter he has not decided on as yet. He had thought of securing quarters at Saratoga, but that is a matter which he has left to Joe Vandeis to decide. The youngster will either train at the quarters in Hartford, where he prepared for his first fight with McGovern, or at Saratoga.

He put in ten days of hard work at Mount Clemens and says that he never felt better in his life. "I went out 125 pounds," he said to an Evening World reporter, "and you see I will not have a hard job in the month I have to finish my work to take off a couple more."

"I have every confidence of beating Terry again. I do not see how I can fail. But please do not think me boastful. If I fought I'd get beaten I would not fight. Would you?"

"I have some advantages in this fight. I did not last time. When I met Terry he was a raw horse. I never saw him fight. Since then I have fought him and seen him fight."

"Corbett" visited the Brighton Beach track this afternoon but did not make any very big plunges on the "ponies."

WALTHOUR MOTOR IS BIG.

Has His Prospective Opponents Have Withdrawn Protests.

Bobby Walthour, the popular little pace follower and six-day champion, is greatly pleased over the fact that McFarland, Freeman and Munroe, his three competitors in the big race at Manhattan Beach next Saturday, have withdrawn their protest against his using the big motor in the race.

Walthour in question has caused Walthour no end of trouble this morning. It is claimed that he nearly killed the riders have objected to compete against him when placed by the race committee. Walthour's protest is so great that they have no chance to beat him.

The rules laid down by the N. C. A. state plainly that no part of the racing machine should be over 100 inches wide, but Walthour's tandem with a big belt and other attachments make it extend about four inches over the limit. With Winnie O'Connor riding against him, over sixty riders in the three amateur races about ten starters in the amateur motor races, the card looks to be the strongest given at Manhattan Beach this year.

PIERCE AFTER RECORD.

Indian Will Try to Make New Mark at National A. C. Games.

Jerry Pierce will try for a record in the one and a half-mile handicap at the National A. C. games at Montevideo Park on Aug. 2. A one-mile handicap relay race, with most of the metropolitan clubs represented by teams, a 100-yard dash, 300-yard run, running high jump and one-mile bicycle race are handicap events on the programme. A 75-yard and an 80-yard race are the novice features. Entries close at 10 o'clock, with Diemer & Cluet, No. 25 Cedar street, Brooklyn.

M'GUIRE TO JUMP BACK.

President Ebbetts Said to Have Arranged to Get Catcher Again.

The Brooklyn Club will in all probability get Catcher Jim McGuire back from the Detroit Club, of the American League, to which he jumped last spring. President Ebbetts of the Brooklyn Club is now in Philadelphia where the Detroiters are playing and is believed to have had an understanding with McGuire.

McGuire, it is said, would like to get back with Hanlon's forces.

WINNERS AT ST. LOUIS.

RACE TRACK, ST. LOUIS, July 24.—The races scheduled to be run here today resulted as follows:

First Race—Three-quarters of a mile.—Won by Countess Clara, 8 to 1 and 2 to 1; Margaret Steele, 8 to 1 for place, was second; Mona B. third. Time—1:15.4.

Second Race—One mile and seventy yards.—Won by Little Lois, 5 to 1 and 2 to 1; L. L. second; and Burnett's Walkaway third. Time—1:54.4.

Third Race—Five and one-half furlongs.—Won by Fitzbrill, even and 1 to 3; Avoid, 8 to 1 for place, was second, and Germetins third. Time—1:08.34.

Standing of the Clubs.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Club	W.	L.	P.	Cl.	W.	L.	P.
Pittsburgh	55	17	7	71	34	44	436
Brooklyn	46	26	8	80	45	427
Chicago	41	31	2	74	34	425
Boston	38	34	2	74	34	425

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Club	W.	L.	P.	Cl.	W.	L.	P.
St. Louis	45	21	5	71	34	40	481
Philadelphia	41	25	3	69	34	41
St. Paul	39	27	4	60	34	42
Washington	38	28	4	60	34	42

EASTERN LEAGUE.

Club	W.	L.	P.	Cl.	W.	L.	P.
Brooklyn	40	24	3	67	34	41
Philadelphia	38	26	4	64	34	42
St. Paul	35	29	4	64	34	42
Washington	32	32	4	64	34	42

SARATOGA STABLE ROOM IN DEMAND.

Strings Are Arriving Daily and by Aug. 4 About 2,000 Thoroughbreds Will Be at the Spa.

(Special to The Evening World.) SARATOGA, N. Y., July 23.—So many big strings of running horses from both the East and the West are arriving at the training grounds of the Saratoga Racing Association that it is a question of how to properly dispose of them.

Every farm within any kind of reasonable distance of the running park is being rented in order to meet so far as possible the extraordinary demand for stabling accommodations.

It is believed that there will be from 1,500 to 2,000 race horses in Saratoga by Aug. 4, the opening date of the annual meeting of twenty-two days.

DAN PATCH CUTS RECORD.

The Monk Wins Deciding Heat Against Lord Derby.

CLEVELAND, July 24.—The 204 pace and the 207 trot furnished sensations for the record-breaking crowd that attended the Grand Circuit races here.

The unbeaten Dan Patch was always a 1 to 5 favorite for the pace and the 204 heat had cut his record to 2:03.4 when chased out in the opening heat by Riley B.

The first heat of the 207 trot went to the Monk, who had sold for $50 to $100 on the field. Lord Derby was far back, and the judges decided that Spear had made an improper drive. He was taken down and George Saunders put up behind Lord Derby. The drive down the stretch was terrific, and The Monk was out at the wire.

Lord Derby trotted the last half in 1:02.4. A bad break put him out of the race in the deciding heat, and the race went to the Monk, Dolly Dillon being unable to force him out. The judges found Spear $250 short of the money to the substituted driver. All bets on the race were declared off.

YACHTSMEN'S GALA NIGHT AT LARCHMONT.

Big Entertainment in New Pandemonium Theatre.

(Special to The Evening World.) LARCHMONT, July 24.—Many millions of yachtsmen will attend a special theatrical entertainment to-night in the new Pandemonium Theatre of the Larchmont Yacht Club. The performance will be under the special supervision of Clay Greene, and "The Land of the Living" and "The Land of the Dead" will be presented.

Three plays are to be presented. "A Commodore in Petticoats," "Too Much of a Good Thing," and "The Land of the Living." Yachting parties will come from New York, Atlantic, Indian Harbor and Manhattan Yacht Clubs to attend the performance.

EMPEROR THANKS.

Berlin Crews Met with Great Hospitality in Cork.

CORK, July 24.—At the opening of the Cork Asile Court to-day Chief Justice O'Brien read a telegram from Emperor William thanking him for the hospitality shown to the Berlin crews which engaged in the contest for the International Cup and expressing his thanks to the President of the League of Nations, who presented the trophy, for a sportsmanlike message which the club sent to him. The Emperor added:

"The Berlin Club did well and hopes its visit will be renewed and return, since such contests are excellent for promoting friendship and friendship between the two countries."

BRIGHTON BEACH ENTRIES.

(Special to The Evening World.)

RACE TRACK, BRIGHTON BEACH, July 24.—The entries for to-morrow's races are as follows:

First Race—Three-quarters of a mile.—Won by Countess Clara, 8 to 1 and 2 to 1; Margaret Steele, 8 to 1 for place, was second; Mona B. third. Time—1:15.4.

Second Race—One mile and seventy yards.—Won by Little Lois, 5 to 1 and 2 to 1; L. L. second; and Burnett's Walkaway third. Time—1:54.4.

Third Race—Five and one-half furlongs.—Won by Fitzbrill, even and 1 to 3; Avoid, 8 to 1 for place, was second, and Germetins third. Time—1:08.34.

Standing of the Clubs.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Club	W.	L.	P.	Cl.	W.	L.	P.
Pittsburgh	55	17	7	71	34	44	436
Brooklyn	46	26	8	80	45	427
Chicago	41	31	2	74	34	425
Boston	38	34	2	74	34	425

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Club	W.	L.	P.	Cl.	W.	L.	P.
St. Louis	45	21	5	71	34	40	481
Philadelphia	41	25	3	69	34	41
St. Paul	39	27	4	60	34	42
Washington	38	28	4	60	34	42

EASTERN LEAGUE.

Club	W.	L.	P.	Cl.	W.	L.	P.
Brooklyn	40	24	3	67	34	41
Philadelphia	38	26	4	64	34	42
St. Paul	35	29	4	64	34	42
Washington	32	32	4	64	34	42

no place here! No place to get one like the Sunday World's House and Home Wants.

BIG FIGHTERS READY FOR TO-MORROW NIGHT'S CONTEST.

FITZ RESTING UP AFTER DAY OF HARD WORK.

(Continued from First Page.)

his as a good investment. Fitzsimmons is full of confidence and wishes to be quoted as saying that he will surely win.

Jeffries did little work to-day. He is in splendid spirits and declares there is no possibility of his defeat.

New Ring Is Tardy.

The arena has received its canvas canopy and has been declared safe by the fire authorities and is ready for use. Nearly one hundred police will be employed to restrain the crowd which is sure to gather around the structure while the fight is in progress.

Dr. C. W. Green, physician for the San Francisco Athletic Club, has examined both Jeffries and Fitzsimmons and pronounces them in perfect condition physically.

To Referee in Dress Suit.

Eddie Graney, the referee, will enter the ring attired in a tuxedo dress suit. He says he will order the men to break and will not go between them. He will not permit any infraction of the Marquis of Queensberry rules. No one but Delaney or Dawson, representing Jeffries and Fitzsimmons, will have the right to throw up the sponge. Graney will not allow either man to be disqualified.

Ex-Champion Jim Corbett will write a detailed story of the Fitzsimmons-Jeffries championship fight for Saturday's Evening World. Corbett has met both men in fist combat and knows the qualities and strong and weak points of each. His review and comment as the fight progresses should make interesting reading.

A special wire from the ringside to The Evening World office will tell Corbett every move and punch of each fighter, from which he will draw his word picture expressly for The Evening World's readers.

Corbett at present is giving his monologue act nightly to crowds of Bayonne (N. J.) folks at Brennan Bernstein's pretty Washington Park Palm Garden. As a special feature he has to have called off the returns of the fight there. But Proprietor Bernstein let the ex-champion out of the contract to oblige The Evening World.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

Jim Wakely cannot see anybody but Jeffries. He says he has $2,000 which he will put out at the rate of 2 to 1 to win and 10 to 1 to lose. If Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

George Considine is an ardent Fitz fan. He has bet considerably on the Australian, getting 2 to 1, and he says he has more to wager at the same odds. Tom O'Rourke, who is reckoned as a keen judge of the fighting game as any man in the country, considers the battle already over, with Jeff an easy winner.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

Jim Wakely cannot see anybody but Jeffries. He says he has $2,000 which he will put out at the rate of 2 to 1 to win and 10 to 1 to lose. If Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

George Considine is an ardent Fitz fan. He has bet considerably on the Australian, getting 2 to 1, and he says he has more to wager at the same odds. Tom O'Rourke, who is reckoned as a keen judge of the fighting game as any man in the country, considers the battle already over, with Jeff an easy winner.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

Jim Wakely cannot see anybody but Jeffries. He says he has $2,000 which he will put out at the rate of 2 to 1 to win and 10 to 1 to lose. If Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

George Considine is an ardent Fitz fan. He has bet considerably on the Australian, getting 2 to 1, and he says he has more to wager at the same odds. Tom O'Rourke, who is reckoned as a keen judge of the fighting game as any man in the country, considers the battle already over, with Jeff an easy winner.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

Jim Wakely cannot see anybody but Jeffries. He says he has $2,000 which he will put out at the rate of 2 to 1 to win and 10 to 1 to lose. If Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

George Considine is an ardent Fitz fan. He has bet considerably on the Australian, getting 2 to 1, and he says he has more to wager at the same odds. Tom O'Rourke, who is reckoned as a keen judge of the fighting game as any man in the country, considers the battle already over, with Jeff an easy winner.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

Jim Wakely cannot see anybody but Jeffries. He says he has $2,000 which he will put out at the rate of 2 to 1 to win and 10 to 1 to lose. If Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

George Considine is an ardent Fitz fan. He has bet considerably on the Australian, getting 2 to 1, and he says he has more to wager at the same odds. Tom O'Rourke, who is reckoned as a keen judge of the fighting game as any man in the country, considers the battle already over, with Jeff an easy winner.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

Jim Wakely cannot see anybody but Jeffries. He says he has $2,000 which he will put out at the rate of 2 to 1 to win and 10 to 1 to lose. If Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

George Considine is an ardent Fitz fan. He has bet considerably on the Australian, getting 2 to 1, and he says he has more to wager at the same odds. Tom O'Rourke, who is reckoned as a keen judge of the fighting game as any man in the country, considers the battle already over, with Jeff an easy winner.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

Jim Wakely cannot see anybody but Jeffries. He says he has $2,000 which he will put out at the rate of 2 to 1 to win and 10 to 1 to lose. If Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

George Considine is an ardent Fitz fan. He has bet considerably on the Australian, getting 2 to 1, and he says he has more to wager at the same odds. Tom O'Rourke, who is reckoned as a keen judge of the fighting game as any man in the country, considers the battle already over, with Jeff an easy winner.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

Jim Wakely cannot see anybody but Jeffries. He says he has $2,000 which he will put out at the rate of 2 to 1 to win and 10 to 1 to lose. If Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

George Considine is an ardent Fitz fan. He has bet considerably on the Australian, getting 2 to 1, and he says he has more to wager at the same odds. Tom O'Rourke, who is reckoned as a keen judge of the fighting game as any man in the country, considers the battle already over, with Jeff an easy winner.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

Jim Wakely cannot see anybody but Jeffries. He says he has $2,000 which he will put out at the rate of 2 to 1 to win and 10 to 1 to lose. If Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

George Considine is an ardent Fitz fan. He has bet considerably on the Australian, getting 2 to 1, and he says he has more to wager at the same odds. Tom O'Rourke, who is reckoned as a keen judge of the fighting game as any man in the country, considers the battle already over, with Jeff an easy winner.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

Jim Wakely cannot see anybody but Jeffries. He says he has $2,000 which he will put out at the rate of 2 to 1 to win and 10 to 1 to lose. If Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

George Considine is an ardent Fitz fan. He has bet considerably on the Australian, getting 2 to 1, and he says he has more to wager at the same odds. Tom O'Rourke, who is reckoned as a keen judge of the fighting game as any man in the country, considers the battle already over, with Jeff an easy winner.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

Jim Wakely cannot see anybody but Jeffries. He says he has $2,000 which he will put out at the rate of 2 to 1 to win and 10 to 1 to lose. If Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

George Considine is an ardent Fitz fan. He has bet considerably on the Australian, getting 2 to 1, and he says he has more to wager at the same odds. Tom O'Rourke, who is reckoned as a keen judge of the fighting game as any man in the country, considers the battle already over, with Jeff an easy winner.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

Jim Wakely cannot see anybody but Jeffries. He says he has $2,000 which he will put out at the rate of 2 to 1 to win and 10 to 1 to lose. If Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

George Considine is an ardent Fitz fan. He has bet considerably on the Australian, getting 2 to 1, and he says he has more to wager at the same odds. Tom O'Rourke, who is reckoned as a keen judge of the fighting game as any man in the country, considers the battle already over, with Jeff an easy winner.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

Jim Wakely cannot see anybody but Jeffries. He says he has $2,000 which he will put out at the rate of 2 to 1 to win and 10 to 1 to lose. If Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

George Considine is an ardent Fitz fan. He has bet considerably on the Australian, getting 2 to 1, and he says he has more to wager at the same odds. Tom O'Rourke, who is reckoned as a keen judge of the fighting game as any man in the country, considers the battle already over, with Jeff an easy winner.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

Jim Wakely cannot see anybody but Jeffries. He says he has $2,000 which he will put out at the rate of 2 to 1 to win and 10 to 1 to lose. If Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.

George Considine is an ardent Fitz fan. He has bet considerably on the Australian, getting 2 to 1, and he says he has more to wager at the same odds. Tom O'Rourke, who is reckoned as a keen judge of the fighting game as any man in the country, considers the battle already over, with Jeff an easy winner.

There has been very little local betting on the result of the big battle in San Francisco, the universal belief being that Jeffries will win handsily. The champion has sent a commission of $1,000 to speculate at Red Block, and asks the latter to speculate at 2 to 1 on. Milton Robles, of the Hotel Bartholdi, an old admirer of the old man yet, if Robles gets better odds than 2 to 1 he will wager a good pile.